

Black History: A Musical Journey With Jenni Johnson & Friends

Larry McCrorey, Rob Guerrina, Bob Gagnon, Jeremy Hill, Aiyana Ife, Evelyn Kwanza, Bruce McKenzie, Joe Moore & Tony Pietricola

Friday, February 24, 2006

7:00 to 9:30 pm

105 Mann Hall Auditorium

208 Colchester Avenue, UVM's Trinity Campus

Experience the musical roots and influences of the rhythms from Western Africa to what we call present day American Jazz and R&B.

The show will start with the drum rhythms from Western Africa and its influences to the art form called American Jazz. A few Slave Songs and spirituals building with influences of the artists and music from New Orleans, as well as, blues and the R&B sounds of Motown; it's all part of the journey.

Free and open to Faculty, Staff, Students and the Public.
Doors Open at 6:45 pm. Seating is limited.

Sponsored by These University of Vermont Offices
Race and Culture Program, The Vice Provost's Office of Multicultural Affairs, College of Education and Social Services Dean's Office, ALANA Student Center, Center for Cultural Pluralism, Women's Center, Dept. of Integrated Professional Studies and The Counseling Program

For more information contact: Rose Mary Graveline, 656-3888 or Rose.Graveline@uvm.edu or visit the web www.uvm.edu/~culture/events.html or jennijohnson.net/events.

*Poster by Rose Mary Graveline
Graphic by Karen L. McCloud, Silver Cloud Design, Inc.*